

Think ahead of your time—plan now to attend the League’s Annual Meeting and Convention. Masterful speakers, superb educational sessions, and award-winning atmosphere will inspire your finest work yet.

This year’s speakers include:

Dan Rather

Keynote Speaker — The former CBS Evening News anchor/managing editor has often been called "the hardest working man in broadcast journalism." For more than half a century, Rather has covered the people and events that have defined our times and changed the world. Through it all, he has earned the public’s respect and received virtually every honor in broadcast journalism. Don’t miss the in-depth insights of this news icon.

Lynn Brewer

One of the celebrated “Enron whistleblowers,” Lynn gives compelling details into the company’s rise and fall. Today, Lynn is the Founding Chairman and CEO of The Integrity Institute, and is the author of Confessions of an Enron Executive: A Whistleblower’s Story and SportsVision: Athletic Excellence through Visualization. Her message is a real-life master course in business ethics that has captivated audiences worldwide.

Create the ultimate convention experience with:

- PAC Golf Tournament at four-star Rio Secco Golf Club
- 18 sessions on the latest credit union topics
- CU Marketplace with more than 150 suppliers, plus your chance to win a Grand Prize Bellagio Las Vegas weekend
- Welcome Reception and many other networking opportunities

Lisa Ling

A California native, Ling is known nationwide as host of the award-winning documentary series Explorer, co-host of The View, and a special contributor to The Oprah Winfrey Show. Since launching her television career at age 16, Ling has served as a senior war correspondent, shared her no-holds-barred opinions with millions of Americans, and reported from more than two dozen countries. Be there to hear her inspiring message in person.
